Important – Duty of Disclosure

It is your responsibility to provide complete and accurate information to insurers when you take out your insurance policy, throughout the life of the policy and when you renew it. It is important you ensure that all statements you make in any telephone call or correspondence, on any claim form or other documentation are full and accurate. Please note that if you fail to disclose any material information or changes of circumstances to your insurers, this could invalidate your insurance cover and could mean that part or all of a claim may not be paid. You should keep copies of all correspondence in connection with this insurance.
