

Renewal Guide

for your motorhome insurance

Don't pay too much!

There are many ways in which you can reduce your insurance premium, even after we've sent you your renewal quote. Here are our top 5 ideas...

How far will you go this year?

Fewer miles could mean a lower premium

- up to 3,000 miles
- up to 5,000 miles
- up to 7,000 miles
- up to 9,000 miles
- up to 11,000 miles
- over 11,000 miles

You can check this on your Policy Schedule.

Are you willing to increase your excess?

This could reduce your premium

Feel free to pick and choose

Your Policy Schedule will show any optional extras that apply. Simply call us if you want to add any extra cover such as...

European cover

Enjoy the freedom to take trips abroad for up to 9 months, be it a hop across the channel or a full tour of Europe

European breakdown

Extends our specialist motorhome recovery service

Protected no claim discount

Help to keep your premiums low even if you have to claim

Emergency accommodation cover

Fall back on up to £75 daily for a maximum of 15 days so you can continue your holiday, or pay to extend this up to £100 per day for up to 30 days

Named drivers

Flexibility to add up to 4 named drivers

Double check

Check the current value of your motorhome. The 'Value' on your Schedule should represent the total value of your motorhome, plus any fixtures and fittings designed to be permanently installed. You should call us if it is incorrect.

Get what you deserve!

Security system discount	up to 25%
For immobilisers, alarms and approved tracking devices
